

What a privilege our family has had sharing life together with the Waodäni people. Over the past 10 years we have worked and laughed and cried together. Now they have shared with us their concern for the future.

Many Waodäni today are concerned that their young people especially will not walk away from the very gospel that has offered them freedom from generations of traditional revenge killings.

They have expressed the need for transitional life-skills that will bridge the gap between their jungle life-style and the modern world.

God has placed it on the hearts of our family to respond to their requests for a training center that provides spiritual and practical training opportunities for them in these modern times.

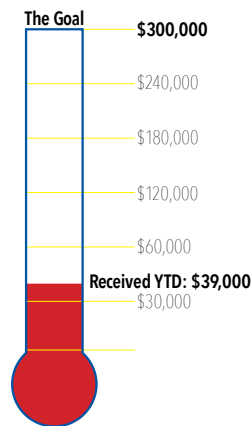

While the center will offer specific training for a variety of skills, we recognize that the larger vision for discipleship, empowerment and development will happen naturally. Ecuadorians, North Americans and others will all benefit as they share life together in this place.

This center will make a practical and spiritual investment as it provides tools and classes to equip the Waodäni and other indigenous peoples with real-life and income-earning skills, as well as create an environment to share and live out the gospel through teaching, mentoring and discipling so that Jesus Christ is proclaimed.

YOUR FINANCIAL PARTNERSHIP AND FAITHFUL PRAYERS ARE NEEDED FOR THIS TRAINING CENTER TO BECOME A REALITY! THERE IS A PLACE TO BEGIN AND PEOPLE ARE READY. PLEASE JOIN US – HELP THIS CENTER OPEN IT'S DOORS IN 2016!

Chet and Katie Williams develop discipling leaders, Ecuadorians and North Americans, equipping and empowering them to bring God's Kingdom nearer.
